Dear colleagues!

Western University (Baku, Azerbaijan) announces:

An International Scientific-Practical Conference

LITERATURE IN THE CONTEXT OF INTERREFLECTION OF ARTS

This conference, dedicated to the 20th anniversary of the English Philology Department, will be held on October 30, 2014 at Western University.

The address:
Western University
27 Istiglaliyyat Ave.
AZ1001 Baku, Azerbaijan.

The topics to be discussed in the conference are the following:
- the poetics of intermediality
- literature in the field of arts: literature and music; literature and theatre; literature and the visual arts
- the commonality of arts
- literary translation as an art.

This conference will have three working languages: Azerbaijani, English and Russian.

To take part in this conference, please send an application before September 20, 2014 to Dr. Alla Bayramova at conference@wu.edu.az

On the application must be:
- title, surname, given name, middle name,
- the place of work and position,
- postal address, contact phone number(s) and mailing address,
- the title of the paper with a short abstract,
- is accommodation needed or not,
- the form of participation in the conference:
  a. personal presentation of the paper
  b. distance participation by sending a paper.

Following the conference, the papers of scientific works are to be published. The articles of participants’ will be accepted up to 2 months following the date of the conference. The rules of publication will be announced and will be given to participants.

Travel expenses to and from Baku should be covered by the participant. Airport pickup and drop off, local transportation, accommodation and meals will be provided by Western University (for a number of applicants).

Contacts:
Conference committee, Chair - Dr Alla Bayramova conference@wu.edu.az, bayramova_alla@wu.edu.az Tel. (+99455) 7076755.